This map is intended as a guide only to help users plan their cycling trip in Guelph. It shows bike lanes, trails and pathways as well as some suggested routes and connections in areas where there are currently no designated facilities. Cyclists should exercise caution at all times and obey all rules of the road. Cyclists should exercise the same level of caution whether riding on a street or route designated by this map or a non-designated street or route. The City of Guelph, its employees and agents, do not guarantee the accuracy of the information contained herein, nor warrant the safety of any route, highway, road, designated on-street cycling route or trail shown on the map. Cyclists ride at their own risk and the City will not be liable for any injury or damage sustained by the cyclist to his or her person or property arising from any information contained in this map. The City does not warrant to make any representations as to the accuracy or completeness of this map after its publication date of May 2021.
